THE INTERNAL REVENUE ACT.

Laws of the United States,
Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC ACT NO. [illegible]]

An Act to provide Internal Revenue to support the Government and to pay interest on the public debt.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That if any person owning, possessing, or having the care or management of property, goods, wares, and merchandise, articles or objects liable to pay any duty, tax, or license, shall fail to make and exhibit a written list when required, as aforesaid, and shall consent to disclose the particulars of any and all the property, goods, wares, and merchandise, articles and objects liable to pay any duty or tax, or any business or occupation liable to pay any license, as aforesaid, then and in that case it shall be the duty of the officer to make such list, which, being distinctly read, consented to, and signed by the person so owning, possessing, or having the care or management as aforesaid, shall be received as the list of such person.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That if any such person shall deliver or disclose to any assessor or assistant assessor appointed in pursuance of this act, and requiring a list or lists, as aforesaid, any false or fraudulent list or statement, with intent to defeat or evade the valuation or enumeration hereby intended to be made, such person so offending, and being thereof convicted on indictment found therefor in any circuit court or district court of the United States held in the district in which such offence may be committed, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, at the discretion of the court, and shall pay all costs and charges of prosecution; and the valuation and enumeration required by this act shall, in all such cases, and in all cases of undervaluation or understatement, be made as aforesaid, upon lists according to the form prescribed, to be made out by the assessors and assistant assessors respectively, which lists the said assessors and assistant assessors are hereby authorized and required to make, according to the best information they can obtain, and for the purpose of making which, they are hereby authorized to enter into and upon the lands [illegible] [illegible] [illegible], and from the valuation and enumeration so made there shall be no appeal.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That in case any person shall be absent from his or her place of residence at the time an assistant assessor shall call to receive the list of such person, it shall be the duty of such assistant assessor to leave at the place of residence of such person, with some person of suitable age and discretion, if such be present, otherwise to deposit in the nearest post office a written note or memorandum, addressed to such person, requiring him or her to present to such assessor the list or lists required by this act within ten days from the date of such note or memorandum.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That if any person, on being notified or required, as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to give such list or lists within the time required, as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the assessor for the assessment district within which such person shall reside, and he is hereby authorized and required, to enter into and upon the premises, if it be necessary, of such person so refusing or neglecting, and to make, according to the best information which he can obtain, and on his own view and information, such lists of property, goods, wares, and merchandise, and all articles or objects liable to duty or taxation, owned or possessed, or under the care or management of such person, as are required by this act, including the amount, if any, due for license; and in case of refusal or neglect to make such lists, except in cases of sickness, the assessors shall thereupon add fifty per centum to the amount of the items thereof; and the lists so made and subscribed by such assessor shall be taken and reputed as good and sufficient lists of the persons and property for which such person is to be taxed for the purposes of this act; and the person so failing or neglecting, unless in case of sickness or failure to receive the notice, shall moreover forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars, except where otherwise provided for, to be recovered for the use of the United States, with costs of suit.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That whenever there shall be in any assessment district any property, goods, wares, merchandise, articles or objects not owned or possessed by, or under the care or management of, any person or persons within such district, and liable to be taxed as aforesaid, and no list of which shall have been transmitted to the assistant assessor in the manner provided by this act, it shall be the duty of the assistant assessor for such district, and he is hereby authorized and required, to enter into and upon the premises where such property is situated, and take such view thereof as may be necessary, and to make lists of the same, according to the form prescribed, which lists, being subscribed by the said assessor, shall be taken and reputed as good and sufficient lists of such property, goods, wares, and merchandise, articles or objects, as aforesaid, under and for the purposes of this act.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That the owners, possessors, or persons having the care or management of property, goods, wares, and merchandise, articles, or objects, not lying or being within the assessment district in which they reside, shall be permitted to make out and deliver the lists thereof required by this act (provided the assessment district in which the said objects of duty or taxation are situated is therein distinctly stated) at the time and in the manner prescribed to the assistant assessor of the assessment district wherein such persons reside. And it shall be the duty of the assistant assessor who receives any such list to transmit a copy to the assistant assessor where such objects of taxation are situate, who shall examine such list, and if he approves the same, he shall return it to the assistant assessor from whom he received it, with his approval thereof; and if he fails to approve the same, he shall make such alterations therein as he may deem to be just and proper, and shall then return the said list, with such alterations therein or additions thereto, to the assistant assessor from whom he received the said list; and the assistant assessor where the person liable to pay such tax resides, shall proceed in making the assessment of the tax upon the list thus made out, in all respects as if the said list had been in the first instance by himself.

SEC. 14. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] at other and different times, the list shall be delivered from time to time as they become due. And if any assistant assessor shall fail to perform any duty [illegible] within the time prescribed by [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] other legal instructions, [illegible] [illegible] by sickness or other [illegible] such assistant assessor shall be discharged from office, and shall, moreover, forfeit and pay two hundred dollars, to be recovered for the use of the United States, with costs of suit.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That the assessor for each collection district shall, by advertisement in some public newspaper published in each county within said district, if any such there be, and by written or printed notifications, to be posted up in at least four public places within each assessment district, advertise [illegible] concerned of the time and place within said county when and where the lists, valuations, and enumerations made and taken within said county may be examined; and said lists shall remain open for examination for the space of fifteen days after notice shall have been given as aforesaid. And said notifications shall also state when and where within said county, after the expiration of said fifteen days, appeals will be received and determined relative to any erroneous or excessive valuations or enumerations by the assistant assessors. And it shall be the duty of the assessor of each collection district, at the time fixed for hearing such appeal as aforesaid, to submit the proceedings of the assistant assessors, and the lists taken and returned as aforesaid, to the inspection of any and all persons who may apply for that purpose. And the said assessor for each collection district is hereby authorized, at any time within fifteen days from and after the expiration of the time allowed for such appeals as aforesaid, to hear and determine in a summary way, according to law and right, upon any and all appeals which may be exhibited against the proceedings of the said assistant assessors: Provided, That the question to be determined by the assessor, on an appeal respecting the valuation or enumeration of property, or objects liable to duty or taxation, shall be, whether the valuation complained of be or be not in a just relation or proportion to other valuations in the same assessment district, and whether the enumeration be or be not correct. And all appeals to the assessor, as aforesaid, shall be made in writing, and shall specify the particular cause, matter, or thing respecting which a decision is requested; and shall, moreover, state the ground or principle of inequality or error complained of. And the assessor shall have power to re-examine and equalize the valuations as shall appear just and equitable; but no valuation or enumeration shall be increased without a previous notice, of at least five days, to the party interested, to appear and object to the same, if he judge proper; which notice shall be given by a note in writing, to be left at the dwelling house, office or place of business of the party by such assessor or an assistant assessor.

Notice.

A Constitutional Spasm.

The Albany Inquirer reminds us that the Constitution of Oregon contains a provision requiring the Legislature to make laws to prevent colored people from coming into the State. Since the election in June, when secesh found that it had gone under in Oregon, the debris of that party have become wonderfully sensitive to the necessity of carrying out the provision of the Constitution referred to. They go into spasms when they consider that this portion of the Constitution is likely to be a dead letter. For some six years, when secesh ruled, or felt confident that they would rule in Oregon, these patriotic souls were never disturbed by the reflection that the constitutional provision on the admission of negroes into the State, was suffered to sleep without being at all disturbed. That was Democracy with this secesh faction—all right—negroes might come in—the more the better—but now, if the example of the secesh legislators is followed, it is an awful and terrible thing—and the Breckinridge admirers go into terrible contortions and spasms.

You secesh, had the power to obey this provision of the Constitution four years ago—why didn't you do it?

You had the power to obey it two years ago—but you never made a move to that effect.

Why did you thus neglect what you now say was your imperious duty? Why did you not, you pretended constitutional sticklers, obey what you say is the Constitution, and not trample upon it, as you now declare is the case, as a dead letter? Are you honest men or knaves? Perhaps you can tell.

The Union Legislature have much to do at the present session, in enacting a code of laws, and laws of equal necessity, and if they follow your example and abide by your deliberate decision in regard to the non-necessity of what you call the requirements of the Constitution in relation to the colored race, our convictions are that decency on your part would dictate that your tongues should be still. With all your pretended hatred of the black race, it is very evident that you have long invited their coming to Oregon. If you have not, your conduct belies your acts.

FAILED.—By reference to the proceedings of the House of Representatives of Monday, it will be seen that that body refused to pass "Senate bill No. 7—An Act to proscribe certain conditions upon which money shall be drawn from the State Treasury," over the veto of the Governor. The vote stood 22 yeas to 12 nays, lacking one vote of two-thirds as required by the Constitution in such cases. Thus the bill fails to become a law, and there are no restrictions preventing the drawing of money from the State Treasury by traitors and avowed secessionists. Any person, no matter whether friend or foe, can get money out of the State Treasury without even having to take the oath, provided he has attained a claim against the State. Under the present circumstances, we know of more than one instance where claims against the State have been attained prior to the breaking out of the rebellion, by parties who are now notorious secessionists and positive traitors, which have not yet been paid.

The object of this bill was to prevent these traitors and dangerous enemies to our sacred rights from getting hold of the money belonging to the State, which may be used against us at any moment in the dissemination of treasonable and incendiary documents, or the purchase of powder and ball to desolate our homes and firesides. We were much surprised at the veto message of the Governor, but more sorry that the bill failed in the House. All honor to the Senate; it passed that body with a clear two-thirds majority, and we can say with equal praise that 22 members of the House out of 34 showed that they did not regard their previous action upon this bill as mere child's play. We shall refer to this matter again.

FROM CAPT. CRAWFORD.—We learn that news has been received from Col. Maury's command, on the Snake river, as late as 27th August; Capt. Crawford, with the rear of the emigration, some five hundred wagons, had passed him, and may be expected in Walla Walla by the 15th of the present month. The emigration to Oregon and Washington Territory, the present season, will amount to about five thousand souls. We think it will be found that the emigration on the old route to Oregon have not been seriously annoyed by the Indians. Many of the reports to the contrary are fabulous.

LINT.—The women of San Francisco are scraping lint in great quantity. They have telegraphed East to ascertain whether much is needed. On Aug. 30th, the Surgeon General, U. S. A., issued the following:

"To the loyal Women and Children of the United States: The supply of lint in the market is nearly exhausted. The brave men wounded in defense of their country will soon be in want of it. I appeal to you to come to our aid in supplying this necessary article. There is scarcely a women or child who cannot scrape lint, and there is no way in which their assistance can be more usefully given than in furnishing the means to dress the wounds of those who fall in defense of their rights and their homes."

Details of News

NEW YORK, Sept. [illegible]—The New York Tribune's Washington [illegible] says Gen. Sigel [illegible] man [illegible] and among them are the following: His command has gradually been reduced; because the troops raised expressly for him in different States have been assigned to others [illegible] the grossly abusive manner in which Halleck has treated him [illegible] requests [illegible] have been neglected or [illegible] treatment, and [illegible] his troops are made innocent sufferers [illegible]. He is persuaded they would [illegible] under another commander.

Several Western Governors are urging the appointment of [illegible] to the command of the Union armies in the Mississippi Valley.

Judge [illegible] of Alabama, has urged the importance of taking possession of East Tennessee. He says if our lines are extended along the whole southern boundary of Tennessee, the rebel army will be utterly unable to support itself. He says the country south of that line is incapable of [illegible] the requisite supplies, and considers the movements northward of rebel armies to be in the main great foraging expeditions in search of bread.

Very respectable authority states that Cassius M. Clay will after all return to Russia. The reason assigned is his inability to agree with the Administration in regard to the conduct of the war.

The Times correspondent says conscription is being rigidly enforced in that portion of Eastern Virginia now occupied by the rebels. Every white male between fifteen and sixty-five is being impressed. The rebels have also impressed all negroes into the service as teamsters and laborers.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 2[illegible].—The Am[illegible] correspondent from the centre of the Army of the Potomac says: Our advance is four or five miles out, and a rebel force composed of two brigades, is in the immediate front and shows a disposition to oppose further advance. A spirited cavalry and artillery skirmish took place to-day in which our men drove the rebels some distance.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—The N. Y. Herald's correspondent says: A visit to [illegible]ville discloses the fact that what few inhabitants are there are nearly in a state of starvation. Everything, including stock, has been taken from them by the rebels.

HUDSON, Mo., Sept. 29.—A detachment of the Tenth Missouri Militia recently had a skirmish with guerrillas in Monroe county, repulsing them and capturing their commander, Elliot Majors, and thirteen of his band, together with some horses, stores and camp equipage.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 28th.—Yesterday's Richmond Dispatch says the Confederate army is daily increasing by the accessions of stragglers and conscripts. Whatever may be the intended movements of Gen. Lee he is perfectly successful in keeping them concealed from the enemy as well as our own people.

The Examiner says the public highway in the Valley of Virginia from Winchester to Staunton, is crowded with suffering and wounded soldiers from the battle-fields of Maryland.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29th.—Information from headquarters states that Col. Guitar, of the State militia, captured Major Wells, Captains Emory and Brown, and several privates, and important correspondence, a few days since, in the vicinity of Hudson. Twelve bushwhackers of the same place have been sentenced to death for violation of parole.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 29th.—A gentleman from the vicinity of Lexington, Kentucky, reports a great conflagration in that city on Friday. The origin of the fire is unknown. The loss is several hundred thousand dollars.

Salem Correspondence.

SALEM, Oct. 6, 1862.

Editor Oregonian:

The House of Representatives has just adjourned. Just previous to adjournment the House refused by a vote of 22 to 12 to pass S. B. No. 7, over the veto of the Governor. This was the bill requiring persons having claims against the State to produce to the Secretary of State satisfactory evidence of their loyalty. The result will doubtless give joy and comfort to traitors, throughout the State, and will undoubtedly have a contrary effect upon the mind of the true Union man. Whatever may have been the motive which impelled the eleven members to vote against this bill, the effect of their action will be the same. Traitors will have the same rights and privileges, under the laws of our State, as the most loyal citizen. This I believe to be wrong; men who are attempting the overthrow and destruction of our institutions and laws, should not, according to law or justice be entitled to the same privileges and immunities, as the loyal citizen who is supporting and defending them.

The consideration of the bill induced a great amount of discussion, continuing from 11 A. M. till 5 P. M. The "midday star," from Josephine, as usual, took high constitutional grounds, quoting extensively from the Portland "[illegible] machine," Corvallis Union, and the speech of the secessionist Sennott, recently released from Fort Warren, (which by the way we were edified with to-day, in the columns of the Statesman,) and other eminent and impartial constitutional expounders. Of course it could not be expected that he would do otherwise than oppose the measure.

The weather has been quite pleasant since the close of the State Fair. SPEC.

FROM THE UPPER COUNTRY.—We take the following items from the Walla Walla Statesman of October 4th:

EXPECTED.—We are informed that Hon. C. C. Hewitt, of Olympia, is expected to arrive in this city in a few days, accompanied by his family, who have come over the plains the present season. The Judge and his family are well, and have had a favorable and pleasant trip.

"WHITE INDIANS."—It is the opinion of many of the emigrants that a party of whites have been engaged with the Indians in the late murders of emigrants in the vicinity of Fort Hall and on Raft and Rock rivers. In one instance, they got some fifteen thousand dollars from emigrants whom they murdered.

WAR COUNCIL.—The Snake, Bannock and a portion of the disaffected Nez Perce Indians are now holding a grand Council at Fort Hall, ostensibly to consider the propriety of a war with the Blackfeet, but it is the opinion of many that it is a combination against the whites.

WINTERISH.—The high peaks of the Blue mountains were for the first time this season covered with snow on Wednesday morning.

PRACTICAL SECESSION.—A correspondent of the San Francisco Call says an attorney in that city was a few months since applied to for money to aid a filibustering enterprise to be undertaken by secessionists in California, the object to be the seizure of Nevada, Utah, and New Mexico, by force of arms, for the benefit of the Southern Confederacy. The attorney, although a Southern man, was loyal, and tendered no aid in the premises. The result of the election in that State must have been a damper upon the intended enterprise.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LATER FROM THE EAST.

DATES TO SEPT. 30.

YREKA, Oct. 3.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 28.—The Charleston Mercury, of the 25th, says there are grounds for believing that the enemy are sending heavy reinforcements to Hilton Head, including the whole of Beaufort, Pinckney Island is now occupied by large bodies of troops.

The Richmond Examiner, of the 26th, says Bragg, with 1,000 men, is at Glasgow Junction, and that Rousseau has gone to meet him.

The Nashville Union regards the defeat of Bragg as certain, and says there are 200,000 federal troops between Nashville and Louisville.

A bill passed the Confederate Congress, authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to issue copper coin of the denomination of 5, 10 and 25 cents, to the amount of $5,000,000.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The following official report has been received by Gen. Halleck: At South Mountain our loss was 443 killed, 1,800 wounded and 70 missing. At Antietam, our killed numbered 2,010; wounded, 9,416; missing, 1,043. The loss of the rebels at South Mountain cannot be ascertained with accuracy, but as our troops drove them from the commencement of the action, and as a much greater number of their dead were seen on the field than our own, it is not unreasonable to suppose their loss was greater than ours. Estimating their killed at 500 in that fight, the total number of rebels killed in the two battles would be 3,000. According to the ratio of our own killed and wounded, this would make their loss in wounded 13,500. As nearly as can be determined, the number of prisoners taken by our troops, in the two battles, was at least 6,000 of these 1,200 were wounded. This makes rebel loss in killed, wounded and prisoners 25,542. It may be safely concluded that the rebel army lost at least 30,000 of their best troops from the time our troops first encountered the enemy in Maryland, until they were driven back into Virginia. We have not lost a single gun or color.

We captured 13 guns, 7 caissons, besides 39 colors and one signal flag.

On the battle field of Antietam 14,000 small arms were collected. At South Mountain no collection of small arms was made owing to the haste of pursuit from that point. McCLELLAN.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 30.—Harper's Ferry is now held in large force by our troops and is evidently regarded as an important point.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29th.—It is rumored that the existing quietude in the army is on account of Commissioners on the way from the Confederate Congress to propose terms of peace, something like, the loyal States to take all the Territories, Missouri, Tennessee, Kentucky and Maryland, the Cotton States to have a Congress of their own, to regulate domestic affairs only. In all other things to be again as one separate people for defensive and offensive operations against other countries. To be in unity in matters of postage and revenue service the same as heretofore. They pledge themselves to return all government property as they found it. In addition, to be represented in our Congress according to their white population.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—The rumor that rebel Commissioners are on the way from Richmond to treat for peace is probably sensational, and was telegraphed by mistake.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 30.—Gen. Morgan left Cumberland Gap two weeks ago and is supposed to be marching northeasterly towards Portsmouth, Ohio. He brought away all his stores and blocked up the Gap, so as to render it impassable.

New York, Sept. 30.—27,003 troops have left the city, but their destination is not stated. A Washington letter doubts the rumor about Lee making a serious movement. Says 20,000 troops left Washington last night in one direction and another body in another direction.

The Star says it is generally believed here that Jeff Davis is about to send 50,000 troops by forced marches across the mountains to Wheeling, thence to Pittsburgh and Cincinnati—then forming a junction with Bragg and Kirby Smith in Kentucky.

The Star intimates Heintzelman is in a position to intercept a movement of the rebel army towards Richmond.

INDIAN DEPREDATIONS ON THE PLAINS.—A correspondent of the Washington Statesman furnishes the following interesting items from the journal of Mr. Wm. Redhoffer, an emigrant:

SATURDAY, August 9.—Camped within a short distance of the American Falls, on Snake river. Here we learned by one of our party who had gone ahead, that a train of 15 wagons which were ahead had been attacked and that our assistance was needed immediately. We accordingly moved forward; but before arriving at the scene of action we met a woman who had been shot through the breast, and also a number of children who were in a perfect state of frenzy. The woman died within a few hours after her arrival.

When arriving at the scene of action we found three dead men and five others wounded. Their stock had all been stolen, together with all their provisions. One of the party, named Bullwinkle, from New York city, was killed and robbed of between six and seven thousand dollars. All of the effects of the party were taken,—even their beds and clothing.

From this unfortunate camp we started, but before traveling far we found two wagons which had been upset and robbed. Here we found a dead man lying but a short distance from the camp.

We traveled two miles farther and found two wagons and a dead man lying near. Here we camped for the night and buried the dead.

Here I wish to state that Capt. Kennedy, one of our number, acted an honorable part, and proved himself worthy of the gratitude which was exhibited by the emigrants on the occasion. He succeeded in raising a company of 40 men, all of whom did good execution in Indian fighting. Capt. K. killed 9 Indians. Of the volunteers 4 men were killed and 17 wounded.

The emigrants are suffering everything from the Indians this season. It seems as though the devil had taken possession of all the tribes.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

TAKING THE CENSUS.—We saw our good friend, Aaron Bushwiler, Esq., busily engaged in taking the census yesterday, preparatory to the publication of his City Directory. He says he has to answer more questions than he asks, as many who have not previously heard of him seem anxious to know if he has anything to do with the tax gatherer, an individual much dreaded nowadays. Mr. Bushwiler does not charge any body for telling their age and occupation, therefore he may be considered harmless.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. John Relay, a silversmith, who has been for some time past engaged with the Goldsmith Bros., was taken suddenly ill and died on Monday night last at the What Cheer House. He resided formerly in San Francisco, and leaves a wife to mourn his loss. We understand his remains will be taken to San Francisco for interment.

ROADS.—We learn that Mr. Stephenson, Supervisor of the Southern roads from this city, says that the new road upon the river bank will be opened for travel in two days, or as soon as a big hole is filled up and a little more work can be done thereon.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Day before yesterday a little daughter of Mr. James Bybee, of Sauvie's Island, while playing on the river bank where the family were drying apples, in the [illegible] absence of the parents, ran too near a fire on the ground and her clothes took fire. The children with her endeavored to extinguish the flames but failed, and she ran to the house to her mother, and before the fire was put out was so badly burned that she died in 24 hours thereafter.

THE OPERA.—Dennison's Opera Troupe performed last night to a fair audience, and from a few minutes' observation, we are satisfied that each individual member improves in their efforts to please and interest by constant practice. This place is quite a favorite resort to drive dull care away, or agreeably spend an hour or so in witnessing the performances and the enjoyment of a good hearty laugh.

DULL.—The city has been rather dull during the past two days, owing to the heavy rains preventing the usual amount of trade with the country people.

NAME CHANGED.—The name of the "Metropolis Hotel" has been changed to that of the "Dennison House."

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

SALEM, Oct. 4.

EVENING SESSION.—Met according to adjournment.

H. B. No. 50 read second time.

H. B. No. 57 read third time and passed.

H. B. No. 41 read third time and passed.

H. B. No. 29 read third time.

On motion of Mr. Smith, it was referred to a special committee of three—Smith, Humason and Watson.

H. B. No. 6 read third time; and on motion of Mr. Humason, referred to committee on [illegible]

On motion, adjourned.

House.

SALEM, October 6th, 1862.

House met according to adjournment.

Mr. Smith presented a petition from the citizens of Albany asking for a Charter.

On motion of Mr. Smith, the petition was referred to a special committee of three—Messrs. Smith, Brown and McCoy.

Mr. Moores, Chairman of the committee on engrossed bills, reported H. B. No. 45 as truly engrossed.

Mr. Cummins, Chairman of committee on enrolled bills, reported H. B. No. 44 as correctly enrolled.

Mr. Smith, Chairman of special committee to which was referred H. B. No. 29—an Act regarding marriage—reported a substitute and recommended its adoption.

Mr. Minto, Chairman of the committee to which was referred H. B. No. 5 in relation to taxing dogs, reported a substitute and recommended its passage.

H. B. No. 62 read second time.

Mr. Haines, Chairman of special committee to which was referred H. B. No. 28, reported the same back to the House.

H. B. No. 59 read second time, and on motion of Mr. Moores, the bill was made the special order of Thursday at ten o'clock A. M.

H. B. No. 55 read third time. H. B. No. 59 read third time.

The time having arrived for the consideration of S. B. No. 7 and the Governor's veto thereof, the question being, "Shall the bill pass over the Governor's veto?" a long discussion arose, pending which the House adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—House met as usual. The question being, "Shall S. B. No. 7 pass over the Governor's veto?" on motion, there was a call of the House. All members being present, the discussion continued. The vote being taken, it resulted as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Applegate, Collard, Chuyers, Cummins, Dufur, Engle, Gillette, Hemming-way, Kearnes, McClane, McCully, McCoy, Ramsby, Richardson, Smith, Stevenson, Simpson, Wasserman, Wilkins, Wilson, Watson, Mr. Speaker—22.

There not being two-thirds in favor of the bill, it was lost; and so the Governor's veto was sustained.

On motion, adjourned.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

The attention of the community is respectfully solicited to the New Goods arrived by the last steamer—embracing a full line of Ladies' Silk Mantillas, French Bonnets, [illegible] style Hats, Challis, Poplins, and Debeiges, together with a full assortment of Gents New Style thin Coats, [illegible] Fancy Socks, [illegible] styles of Business Suits, and [illegible] latest fashion of Parisian and New York Fancy Summer Panama, Braid and Light Cassimere Hats. All the articles are now ready for sale, and can be seen at [illegible] New Building on First street, in the rear of Commercial Wharf.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

The Retired Tailor.

Mr. Chester, a tailor, having accumulated a competency at his trade, determined to throw away his shears and bodkin, and spend the remainder of his life on a farm. He purchased several hundred acres of land in Tonawanda; and there was a fishing ground on the estate. Mr. Chester was delighted with his new occupation, and he devoted his best efforts with untiring zeal to farming and fishing. Being very deaf, he often made ludicrous blunders, which excited the mirthfulness of his friends and customers. His graceful and beautiful daughter was at a boarding school at the time her father purchased the farm. She had a lover, and promised to marry him, providing he could obtain the consent of her parents.

The young man traveled West as fast as the railway would take him in that direction. On the morning after his arrival, he was strolling along the banks of the creek that swept through the village of Tonawanda, when he met a plain old gentleman, dressed in homespun, and inquired of him "If the railway carriages had commenced running to the Falls yet?"

"Principally pike and mullet," said he.

"You misunderstand me," continued the young man. "I merely wish to know if the trains have commenced their trips to the Falls of Niagara, and what the fare is?"

"From three to four cents a pound."

"Do you intend to insult me?"

"I will let you have a large quantity for two cents."

"I have a good mind to give you a caning for your impertinence."

"Well, if you don't choose to give it, I know who will."

"I should like to know if there are any more such fools as you are in the town of Tonawanda?"

At this instant, another gentleman made his appearance, and the stranger stated his grievance to him. He said:

"I have been asking this old man a few civil questions, and he has given me the most impertinent answers."

"O, he is deaf!" exclaimed the third party. "He is as deaf as a post; but he is a very fine old gentleman—one of the most influential and respectable men in the county, indeed. He is not impertinent. He deals in fish somewhat, and so do I. It is possible he may think that I am endeavoring to undersell him; will you, therefore, do me the favor to write down your question on a scrap of paper, and save me from suspicion, and satisfy yourself in regard to the old gentleman's politeness?"

The young man commenced writing, when the old farmer-fisherman interrupted him with the remark:

"I will not take a note of hand; cash on the nail, or no trade."

"He is now preparing a note," said the last comer.

"Call me a brute, do you?" exclaimed Mr. Chester; "then take that!" and suiting the action to the word, he dealt him a blow straight from the shoulder, which prostrated him "flat as a flounder."

By this time the note was finished, and the old gentleman discovered his mistake—and about this time the young stranger made the discovery that he had been picking a quarrel with his prospective father-in-law.

Mr. Chester made an apology, and invited both parties to go over to his house to dine. The front door commanded a view of a meadow in which a cow was feeding; and while Mr. Chester was looking in that direction, the youthful lover, whose heart was overflowing with emotion, commenced the task he came such a long distance to perform.

"I am acquainted with your daughter," said he, in a loud tone.

"She is a fine beast," remarked the old gentleman, looking at the cow.

"Your daughter!" screamed the young man. "I have the honor to be well acquainted with her."

"She's a noble animal," was the response.

"Confound the old cow!" said the young man, in a whisper. "I wish she was out of sight. I was speaking about your amiable daughter!"

"She is very kind, indeed, never breaks down the fences; never kicks over the pail; never strays away like some other brutes I have."

"You don't understand me sir! I was speaking of your daughter at the boarding-school!"

"No, I never put a board on her face; she never does any mischief at all."

"Your daughter!" shouted the young man, frantic with excitement.

"Did you say I ought to?"

"No, sir! I was speaking of your daughter—the young lady away from home!"

"O yes—I have plenty of room; but I think she is too old to keep much longer. To tell you the truth, I have made up my mind to shut her up in the stable, and feed her on chop stuff a few weeks."

"Great Heaven!" remarked the young man to himself. "What shall I do? This deafness will be the death of me! I will try once more, and if this effort fails, I will resort to pencil and paper again. I should like to say a word to you respecting your daughter!"

"I shall let the butcher have her by-and-by—if he will give me my price," said the old man, with emphasis.

As a last resort, the young man used his pencil and paper—showed his letters of introduction, which were from those whose opinion was good authority on the delicate question on the tapis. After a little cross-questioning, and a little hesitation, the old gentleman gave his consent; and when the parties were married, he declared it was the best haul he had made in all his life.

A temperance editor, in drawing attention to an article against ardent spirits in one of the inner pages of his paper, says: "For the effects of intemperance, see our inside!"

Non-Resident Notice.

Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah, at the November Term thereof, A. D. 1862.

S. Sherlock, W. Sherlock and C. P. Bacon, partners in trade under the firm name and style of S. Sherlock & Co., Plaintiffs, vs. A. J. Cain, Defendant.

IT HAVING BEEN MADE TO APPEAR TO THE SATISFACTION of the Judge of said Court that you, the said A. J. Cain, are not a resident of the State of Oregon, and cannot be found in said State, after due and diligent search, and that you have property in said State, and that this Court has jurisdiction of the subject of the above entitled action, and that service of summons cannot be made on you, and that a cause of action in the suit above entitled exists against you, it was ordered that service be made in this cause by publication of notice to you, the said A. J. Cain. Now, the said defendant, A. J. Cain, is hereby notified that the said plaintiffs have filed their complaint against you, the said defendant, in said Court, claiming to recover against you the sum of $184 25 and interest thereon at 10 per cent. per annum, from the 1st day of April, A. D. 1861, for a balance due them for goods, wares and merchandise sold and by them delivered to you. And also their affidavit for an attachment against your goods and chattels, lands and tenements, and a writ of attachment was duly issued and levied upon your property.

Now, unless you, the said A. J. Cain, shall and do appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Multnomah county, on the second Monday in November, A. D. 1862, and answer the plaintiffs' complaint filed herein, the same will be taken for confessed, and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court this, the 8th day of August, A. D. 1862.

J. M. BRECK, Clerk,

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

Office Hours, From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not, from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice, in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions, and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption, and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females, treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State of Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three individuals rescued from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of a suffering humanity command their publication, and we recommend them to the attention of the afflicted.

Certificate—The undersigned, desirous of a means of informing those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it a duty to thus publicly express his sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay for the entire recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrollable passions in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance, but alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances months, of their treatment, I found to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief, the symptoms became more alarming in their character, and being told by one that my disease was principally confined to the brain and nerves, would be little or no avail. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength, and energy, and as a last resort, with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicines which almost instantly relieved me of the [illegible] and [illegible] pains in my head. [illegible] Encouraged by [illegible] I resolved to [illegible] his directions [illegible] I have been [illegible] I can now [illegible]

Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco [illegible] I have [illegible] perfectly [illegible] though you might be able to do something to rebuild the [illegible] of my back and head, and strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and trembling at everything. Now I let you know what I expected, you may judge of my surprise, when my complaints were gone from the [illegible] of those [illegible] and blotches from my skin, and the [illegible] from my throat, and the [illegible] part of those [illegible] which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise. [illegible] but having fully [illegible] as well as any man can feel. Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and thank you to be [illegible] cured. If you think anybody will be benefited you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me, gratefully yours.

THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

[illegible] I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves a conspicuous place, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with, on attending it, soon became chronic. I was then [illegible] the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown to the ground without the slightest warning, and although inseparable to the agonies, I yet despised the [illegible] that took upon those who would render assistance or [illegible] from danger on occasions, who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state, and having [illegible] to my affliction, I [illegible] to attempt [illegible] seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and he [illegible] his services regardless of [illegible] My case, and with the blessing of God, I was, in a [illegible] restored to perfect health. I shall be [illegible] for the health I now enjoy at present, and [illegible] I consider it due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
